RALPH SHAUMAN HOME.

He Was Met At Warsaw By His Father and Surprised.

Ralph Shauman, an orderly in the 32d Michigan volunteers, returned home last night having received an honorable discharge a few days before. He will enter the University of Michigan October 1. He has the "peaked look" of the other soldiers.

Ralph was surprised by his father who met him at Warsaw. Mr. Shauman entered the coach Conductor Wells pointed out but failed to see his son. Ralph had been out on the platform to see if any of his Warsaw relatives were at the station. The father and son met in the aisle in the middle of the coach but Ralph did not expect to see anyone he knew and tried to elbow past his father. When Mr. Shauman spoke a look of surprise came over the young man's face that cannot be described.

Mr. Shauman has worked for the Graham & Morton company for six years and last night is the first time his steamer made a trip without him. C. K. Farmer made the trip as clerk last night in Mr. Shauman's place.

COUNTY CAMPAIGN BEGUN.

Republicans Renominate County Ticket.

Berrien Springs, Sept. 15.—The republican county convention had no use for ballots today in nominating their county officers as everything was hurriedly done by acclamation and the present county officers all renominated with the single exception of Coroner Samuel Brown of Benton Harbor who was turned down and Frank Green of St. Joseph was nominated in his place. Mr. Brown has made an excellent official but it was whispered that he committed the unpardonable sin of voting for a democratic mayor last spring. It was 11 o'clock when the chairman.

Hon. A. N. Woodruff, called the convention to order and Rev. Mr. Hess of Berrien offered prayer. Hon. L. C. Fyfe of St. Joseph was introduced as temporary chairman and he made a rousing speech. He praised the republican party from the pre-ent officers of Berrien county up to President McKinley. Dr. F. B. Ginchman of Three Oaks was made temporary secretary and the temporary organization was made permanent.

Leroy Dodd of Buchanan, without whom a county convention could not well be held, moved that the usual committees be dispensed with as it was understood that all the county officers were to be renominated by acclamation. The following were then nominated unanimously without the mention of any other names:

Sheriff—E. H. Ferguson.
Clerk—J. W. Needham.
Treasurer—John Clark.
Register of Deeds—A. O. French.
Prosecuting Attorney—G. M. Valentine.

Circuit Court Commissioners—John C. St. Clair, St. Joseph and N. Bacon. Niles. Mr. Bacon declined but everything went.

Surveyor—C. B. Pratt, Watervliet.
Coroners—Frank Green, St. Joseph and Franklin Gowdy, New Buffalo.

Coroner Brown was a candidate for renomination. The first ballot resulted: Brown, 10; Baldrey, 5; Green, 14. Second ballot Green was nominated by the following vote: Brown, 9; Baldrey, 1; Green, 19.

The convention then adjourned for dinner. This afternoon a mass meeting is being held at which Congressman Hamilton and Col. L. M. Ward are the speakers. Mr. Hamilton will sound the keynote of the campaign in the fourth district and the political battle has begun in earnest.

CRISIS IMMINENT.

The Annexation Question Will Cause Trouble in Cuba.

Spanish Merchants Are Jealous of American Enterprise.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

Havana, Sept. 15.—As has been feared by those most vitally interested in the affair of Cuba a great political agitation is imminent and will probably break out before the little republic is out of the shell.

The annexationists, who form not a mean portion of the population are widely circulating a petition over the island, directed to President McKinley asking for the annexation of the island to the United States.

The petition is being signed largely by wealthy merchants and sugar planters and other influential persons on the island. Many Spaniards are opposed to annexation on the ground that in case of annexation, the superior business enterprise of the American would drive the Spanish merchants out of trade.

EVACUATION IN PROGRESS.

Porto Rico Will Soon Be Free of Spanish Troops.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 15.—It is officially announced after this morning's significant meeting of the board of evacuation commissioners, substantial points which have been under discussion for several days have been agreed to.

The departure of Spanish war vessels today really begins the evacuation of the island by Spaniards. The Spanish troops here will follow the warships as soon as it is possible to get transports to convey them.

Troops are coming from the inland towns but our posts are still being maintained.

Dinner for Peace Commissioners.

IT WAS WORSE.

The Cyclone at Barbadoes Worse Than First Reported.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

London, Sept. 15.—Advice received here this morning show that the first reports of the cyclone in the Barbadoes were not exaggerated. The estimate of the loss of life given in last night's report is believed to be far below the actual number killed. The number rendered homeless far exceeds twenty thousand.

When the storm struck the Barbadoes the British gun boat Alert steamed out to sea to avoid being wrecked. The British ship Loanda, the American bark Lapland and a large number of smaller craft were lost.

It is impossible to get anything like accurate details as only a small number of the islands are connected by cable.

Six Commissioners Nailed.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Six commissioners have been secured to investigate the war department. They are Gen. Schofield, Gen. Greenville Dodge, Prof. D. C. Gilman, Col. James Sexton, Charles Denby and Evan Howell.

Don't forget that we print Note, Letter, Bill and Statement headings.

WHITEWASH.

France Applying a Dose to Former War Minister.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

London, Sept. 15.—A Paris dispatch says that the cause of the tardiness of the ministers in reaching a decision in the matter of the revision of the Dreyfus case, was the fact they did not wish to incriminate Gen. Mercier, the ex-minister war, whose illegal conduct in communicating secret evidence to judges of the court martial is firmly established.

Paris, Sept. 15.—The Echo says that Zola will return to Paris in October when he will issue another manifesto on the Dreyfus case. Le Matin says that the ministers have definite proof of secret documents that figured in the original Dreyfus trial that were not shown the accused nor his counsel.

Gen. Miles Sick Aged.

By Telegraph to Evening News.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Gen. Miles was forced to take his bed this morning, the slight fever contracted in Porto Rico having become worse. No serious results are anticipated.

Dr. Antisdale will be in Benton Harbor Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Other days he teaches in the Chicago Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat college.

MORE SPEED.

City of Chicago Will Have More Powerful Engine.

It will take all winter to repair the broken engine of the steamer City of Chicago. It will all have to be removed even to the mammoth bed seats in the bottom of the boat which was broken by the force of the accident.

The work will be done by W. & A. Fletcher, the builders of the engine, and the new machinery will begin to arrive in a few days. The work will be done at the slip at the end of the Benton Harbor dock. The new engineering will give the boat additional strength and speed.

BASE BALL.

Chicago Lost Easily to Philadelphia Yesterday.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—The Phillies were too strong for Burns' team yesterday. Callahan did not approach Field's effectiveness and his support was the poorer. Cleveland drew farther aloft by taking two games at Washington. New York profited from its opportunity to gain only so far as to tie with Pittsburgh. The important game between Baltimore and Cincinnati fell to the former, McJames pitching against Breitenstein. Meantime Boston had an easy opponent in St. Louis. The standing:

Matrimonial Exports.

In the early days of Virginia, when the adventurers were mostly unmarried men, it was deemed necessary to export such women as could be prevailed upon to leave England as wives for the planters. A letter accompanying one of the matrimonial ships, dated London, Aug. 12, 1621, says:

“We send you in the ship a widow and 11 maids as wives for the people of Virginia. There hath been especial care taken in the choice of them, for there hath not one of them been received but upon good recommendations. There are 50 more that are ready to go. For the reimbursing of charges it is ordered that every man that marries them give 100 pounds of best leaf tobacco for each of them.”

The British Empire.

At the present moment the British empire is 53 times the size of France, 52 times that of Germany, 3½ times that of the United States of America, thrice the size of Europe, with treble the population of all the Russias. It extends over 11,000,000 square miles, occupies one-fifth of the globe, contains one-fifth of the human race, or 350,000,000 people, embraces four continents, 10,000 islands, 500 promontories and 2,000 rivers.

Almost Ready to Quit.

When the dog licenses were collected by the collector of queen's taxes a few years ago, a Sussex farmer was written to to pay, and among other charges was one for a dog. He wrote back, “Now, Mr. Brown, I've paid this tax for two years and have not had a dog, and I pay it this time, but if you don't find me a dog at once I will not pay it again.”—London Telegraph.

THIRD YEAR—NO. 914.

MAYOR'S ELEPHANT

C. E. Reeves Gives Some Figures on Municipal Ownership...

EDITOR EVENING NEWS: The public are fully aware that the present city water works are entirely too small. That is no doubt what the mayor referred to as an elephant. It's a small elephant but if it were off our hands every citizen of Benton Harbor would favor a municipal water plant of twice the size. If the city had electric power for private use it would be in demand for printing presses, laundries, coffee grinders, lathes, fans, meat choppers, and various other uses to a probable extent of a hundred horse power. But an electric plant is far more easily enlarged than a water plant, so no very large present outlay need be made to provide for doubling the power in the future. In regard to the saving by municipal ownership, the Kansas State Labor Commission reports the average cost of water by thirty-two private plants and twenty-six public plants as follows: Meter rate per 1000 gallons, private, 78 cents; public, 27 cents; lawns, private, $7.30; public, $4.31; five room house, private, $6.16; public, $5. A further saving to the people is the free supply for fire hydrants and public buildings. The same ratio of saving is shown with electric light plants. Municipal electric lighting is in operation in 333 cities in the United States, furnishing 26,087 arc lights and 371,440 incandescents, with 70,000 horse power. Thirty-five of these plants are in Michigan and in every case report great saving in cost and taxes. If Benton Harbor expects to rank among the progressive, up-to-date cities, it must own its electric light plant.

C. E. REEVES.

THE RESCUE MISSION.

Superintendent Makes an Appeal for Assistance.

As the cold weather approaches, we are continually reminded of our coming needs. Nobly as you have hitherto responded to our appeals for help, it is nevertheless true of temporal as well as spiritual gifts that past blessings do not suffice for present or prospective needs. We are encouraged, however, by our experience in the past, to remind you of our growing necessities, feeling assured that you have but to know our needs in order to respond as you have done in the past. It is the practical gospel that appeals most effectively to the class of people with whom we are called to deal. A personal appeal of visitation is more persuasive if accompanied by a loaf of bread or warm garment. If the recipient is suffering for want of food or raiment. Many hungry, shivering, homeless, friendless wanderers come to the Rescue Mission attracted by the brilliant lights, and general warmth of the atmosphere, and are thus brought under good influence of the gospel, who otherwise could not be reached, and it is our purpose as heretofore, to contribute to their physical as well as their spiritual necessities as far as our resources will allow. We rejoice in the consciousness that we are not alone in this labor of love, but are co-workers with you who are contributing the surplus needful to gladden so many hearts and homes. Would that it were yours to share with us the overwhelming expressions of gratitude that fall from the quivering lips of the recipients of your bounty, to see the tears of thanksgiving welling up into eyes unused to weeping, from hearts steelled by endurance but melted into tenderness by the unexpected loving kindness extended to them.

Kind friends, cold weather is near at hand and many children of poor parents will be shoeless, and the mission is now putting forth an effort to purchase 50 or 100 pairs of out-of-date shoes, which can be purchased of the jobbers at very low figures. The rooms are open daily to receive the offerings from all that would like to assist in the good work. Rest assured, dear ones, when the Master shall say, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me," you as well as the almoners of your bounty shall receive your reward. SUPERINTENDENT.

Accident at Coloma.

Coloma, Sept. 15.—The huge belt that connects the engine with the machinery in Kremer, Gilson & Co.'s basket factory left the band yesterday. It caught a steampipe amidst a snapping it off like a pipe-stem and hurling it against the wall of the engine room with dangerous force, narrowly missing Engineer Simon Hossein and permitting a two-inch stream of scalding steam to escape into the building and among the workmen. All escaped uninjured.

New Track in Kalamazoo.

Kalamazoo, Sept. 15.—Oscar Ames, of Chebouse, Ill., an old horseman, has purchased a track of land east of this city and will build a mile racing track and a club house in connection. A big effort will be put forth to make Kalamazoo a racing center, as it was in years gone by. The track will be ready for the opening of the season next spring.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A motion was argued in the circuit court yesterday afternoon to dissolve the injunction against the city St. Joseph restraining the corporation from grading 20 feet of disputed property in the Finnegan addition. Attorney James O'Hara argued for the dissolution of the injunction and Attorney Bracelin appeared for Mr. Finnegan. The court modified the injunction.

MONEY ALL RAISED.

Benton Harbor Will Have a Street Fair October 18, 19, 20 and 21.

BUSINESS MEN RAISE $1,000.

Another Meeting to be Held at the City Hall This Evening to Appoint Committees.

The soliciting committee who went to the business men of the city to solicit funds for the street fair met with astonishing success and in two days raised $900 with a promise of $100 more, making a total of $1,000. This result shows that the business men of the city know a good thing and realize that where they invest pennies in the enterprise now, they will have dollars returned to them.

Chairman Hopkins has called a general meeting of the business men at the city hall at 8 o'clock this evening, and as the success of the fair depends largely upon this meeting it is sincerely hoped that every business man in the city will be present. The hard part of the work, that of raising the funds, has been completed and now it will only require a few genuine hustlers on the various committees to draw 40,000 strangers into this city on the four days set aside for the fair.

PINGREE WON.

Appointed Regents Must Be Elected By the People.

Lansing, Sept. 15.—Attorney-General Maynard has considered the suggestion of Governor Pingree in regard to filling places of appointees at the next general election, and holds with the governor that Regents Dean and Farr, of the state university, who hold office by virtue of appointments to fill vacancies, should have their successors elected at the coming election in November.

Professor E. F. Johnson of Ann Arbor is also affected by the decision, and his place on the state board of education will be filled by election. The secretary of state is instructed to place the names of candidates for these offices on the official ballot for the November election. This will make three more state officers to be voted for.

On receiving the attorney general's opinion Secretary of State Gardner wrote the governor that in compliance with his directions the necessary notices of election will issue at once.

NOW A DUTY.
 Several business men questioned the advisability of holding a street fair this year. The fact that $1,000 has been raised for the exhibition is proof that the city wants it.
 There is now one duty devolving upon every citizen and that is to make the fair a success. The success of the street fair this year means a success every year. A failure means that future successes of street fairs in this city will be hopeless.
 Make the fair one that will spread the fame of Benton Harbor. Attend the meeting tonight and help make the fair such a success.

ONE of the men nominated at the republican county convention today should be elected without any question and that is County Clerk Needham. His re-election should not be based upon the ground of his politics or because he is more deserving than his opponent, but because it is poor policy to change a clerk. It is the one office where it takes a man a year or two to familiarize himself with all the details of the office and the longer one man holds the position the better clerk he makes. If THE NEWS could have its way the offices of county clerk and city clerk would become life terms or until the affairs of the office were poorly administered.

THE idea that the people have a little voice in the use of their streets has pervaded Michigan. The Grand Rapids council passed an ordinance extending the franchise of the street railway company for a long term of years without any compensation to the city. Mayor Perry, who was elected for his liberal ideas on all public questions, has vetoed the ordinance on the ground that the city should receive something in return for the use of its streets.

A QUEER state of affairs exists in the twelfth congressional district. Ex-Congressman Sam Stephenson was nominated by what he claims was the regular republican convention and Congressman Sheldon was nominated by what he claims was the regular convention. The matter will be fought in the courts and while the quarrel is on a democrat is liable to be elected.

FAULT is being found with the distribution of gravel recently purchased by the city. Much of it is being spread on Pipestone and Territorial streets, streets that should be paved in the near future. The critics claim that if the gravel was placed on streets not likely to be paved and then when the pavement is laid the entire city would have good streets.

Wien Umbrellas Were First Used.
The introduction of the umbrella in some places has been regarded of sufficient importance to be included in the local annals. About 1780 a red Leghorn umbrella was introduced into Bristol, and it created quite a sensation in the city. It was about the same period that an umbrella was first carried in the streets of Stamford, Lincolnshire. It was of Chinese manufacture and was brought to Stamford from Glasgow. Mrs. Stockdale, in 1776, is recorded to have brought from the island of Granada, in the West Indies, the first umbrella seen in Cartmel, Lancashire.

In 1779 Dr. Spens, a popular physician, carried an umbrella in the streets of Edinburgh, and he is credited with introducing it into the Scottish capital. John Jameson, a Glasgow surgeon, visited Paris about 1781 or 1782 and brought back with him an umbrella, which was the first seen in Glasgow, where it attracted unusual attention. William Symington was the first person to carry an umbrella in Paisley.

It is related by Horace Walpole in his account of the punishment of Dr. Shebbeare for libel, Dec. 5, 1758, that when he was in the pillory a footman held over him an umbrella to keep off the rain. This has been described as an aristocratic style of bearing punishment. The undersheriff got into trouble for permitting the indulgence.—Fireside.

Caught In His Own Trap.

It is always pleasant to read of instances in which would be practical jokers have had a chance to sample their own wares. In "Life In California," Alfred Robinson tells of a Senor Lugo, who often amused the travelers by his stories and eccentricities, and one evening attempted a practical joke, with the following result:

He had loaded a paper cigar with gunpowder and placed it among his cigars. During his visit with me he repeatedly asked me to smoke, but I fortunately missed the cigar he had prepared, until finally, from the lateness of the hour, he withdrew.

In the course of the night he awoke, and feeling a desire to smoke selected from his bundle, quite forgetful of the evening's amusement, the very cigar he had prepared for me. Having lighted it, he returned to bed.

The cigar was about half consumed and he more than half asleep when a sudden explosion carried away the better part of his mustache, and so thoroughly frightened his poor wife that I venture to say the event will never be forgotten.

Ready to Give Up. H. H. COLLIS THOUGHT HE WOULD HAVE TO STOP WORK.

He Writes a Letter in Which He Gives Advice to People Who are Suffering From Kidney Troubles.

The way in which kidney diseases are increasing in the number of cases year by year would be extremely startling were it not for the fact that at the time when wrong living had multiplied cases, scientific inquiry has discovered the natural remedy for all disorders of the kidneys.

While working on new lines, with new ingredients, John Morrow, the noted American chemist, discovered Morrow's Kidneoids, and they are rapidly becoming the standard remedy. They check kidney disorders as soon as the evil appears, and they cure the most obstinate cases of long standing where many physicians have failed.

Out of hundreds of letters from grateful users of Morrow's Kidneoids, this one from H. H. Collis, is typical. Mr. Collis is a pressman with the Barrett Publishing Co., and lives at 227 South Center street, Springfield, Ohio.

"I had such a pain in my back I could not rest at night, and could not get relief. I tried all the kidney remedies I have ever heard of, but none of them ever did me any good. My urinary organs and kidneys were in such a condition that I was ready to give up. I could not handle my plates or forms at my work. I heard of Morrow's Kidneoids, and have taken two boxes, and I cannot fully express my gratitude to Mr. Morrow for this great cure. I am a new man now, and feel perfectly well. I am full of life and energy, and life is very dear to me. No one suffering from kidney troubles should delay one minute, but get Morrow's Kidneoids and take them as directed, and a cure is sure to follow."

Ask your dealers for Kidneoids, in yellow tablet form. If he does not keep them, you can get them of John Morrow & Co., Springfield, Ohio, postpaid 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Amazing Cleverness of Birds.
There is something very remarkable in the almost reasoning powers manifested occasionally by birds in eluding pursuit or in turning attention from their nests and young, but in few is this more noticeable than in the duck tribes. In Captain Black's narrative of his arctic land expedition the following instance of this is given:
One of his companions, Mr. King, having shot a female duck, fired again and, as he thought, disabled its male companion. Accordingly, leaving the dead bird, which he had the mortification of seeing shortly afterward carried off by one of the white-headed eagles, he waded into the water after the drake, which, far from being fluttered or alarmed, remained motionless, as if waiting to be taken up. Still, as he neared it, it glided easily away through innumerable little nooks and windings. Several times he reached out his hand to seize it, and, having at last with great patience managed to coop it up in a corner, from which there appeared to be no escape, he was triumphantly bending down to take it when, to his utter astonishment, it looked around at him, cried "Quack!" and then flew away so strongly that he was convinced he had never hit it at all. The bird's object clearly was to draw the gunner away from its companion.

Pagodas as Sin Offerings.
Just as brewers and other evil men in England conciliate heaven by erecting churches so the bold, bad, bloody handed Burman makes it all right for the next existence by erecting pagodas. In proportion to the height of the pagoda his heap of sin disappears. And as the Burman, like the rest of us, looks after his own wants rather than those of his ancestors, he builds a pagoda all to himself, and allows his grandfather's to topple over. An uncle of the deposed king must have been round shouldered with the weight of his wrongdoings. Anyway, at the foot of Mandalay hill—a nice, breezy eminence, admirable to give you an appetite and a pain in the back—he built 729 pagodas, though the guides count wrong and say there are only 450. But perhaps they mention the smaller number out of regard for their monarch's uncle, not wishing to expose the real magnitude of his sinfulness. The pagodas are all white and set out in rows, and under each were what we pronounced to be tombstones. We were wrong, for the inscriptions were not to the dead departed, but constituted a complete copy of the law in the Pali tongue.—Travel

When Wellington Was Mad.
The Czar Nicholas' visit to Windsor in 1844 afforded Murray an opportunity to be present at one of the few occasions when the Duke of Wellington lost control of himself. He did it at a review before the queen, her imperial guest, and the royal family, when, contrary to his orders, issued for the queen's convenience, the guns were fired. The hero of a hundred fights stormed in "a most violent manner."

When the prince tried to pacify him by saying it was doubtless a mistake, he replied: "It is very good of your royal highness to excuse it, but there should be no mistakes. Military orders should be punctually obeyed, and so long as I command the army they shall be obeyed!" The emperor was astonished, and the suits looked at each other with blank faces, while the artillery was ordered off the maneuvering ground.

Cardinal Manning's Humor.
Dr. Manning had a strong sense of humor and delighted in telling Irish stories. One related to an Irish laborer, who was thus addressed by a passing Englishman:

"What's that you're building, Pad-dy?" "Shure an it's a church, yer honner." "Is it a Protestant church?" "No, yer honner." "A Catholic church, then?" "Indade an it is that same, yer honner." "I'm very sorry to hear it, Pad." "So's the devil, yer honner."

The cardinal on one occasion arrived in full merriment, though informing his friends that he had been all but run over, and he added: "If the accident had been more effectual, my epitaph must have been:

"Sad was his fate, it happened thus, He was run over by a bus."

—Westminster Gazette.

Foxy Ways of the Japs.

The first ten days that one spends in Japan impress him with the idea that the people there are the best to be found anywhere. But little by little the conviction dawns that the bowing and scraping is all sham and that the Japanese are as unscrupulous as any one. They cannot be trusted to keep a contract that is not favorable to them. In all the large establishments, especially in the hotels, one always finds a Chinese as cashier. Seemingly the Japanese are afraid to trust one another. The women are quite different. They are faithful and honest and have a lovable nature. I have met a large number of foreigners who have married Japanese women and they are all enthusiastic in their praise. Tacoma Ledger.

Covered the Case.
Not long ago the Dublin Independent published the following obituary notice: "Smith—On the 28th inst., Amy Jane Mary Smith, eldest daughter of John and Wilhelmina Smith, aged 1 day and 2½ hours. The bereaved and heartbroken parents beg to tender their hearty thanks to Dr. Jones for his unremitting attention during the illness of the deceased and for the moderate brevity of his bill; also to Mr. Wilson for running for the doctor and to Mr. Robinson for recommending mustard plaster."

Most Pleasant Picture.

SEEK METHODS THAT MAKE WELL. Allopathic, homeopathic, hydropathic, hypnotic, psychopathic, electric, physio-medical, dosimetric, bio-chemic, orificial and other systems investigated and the best principles of each applied for conditions in which they have proven the most beneficial. No one school of medicine has all the good things, there is some one remedy that is best of all in each. The real physician must represent not one school system or pathy, but the healing art in all its entirety, study and compare all curative measures, then select and apply the pleasantest, safest and surest. It is better to cure by any system that will accomplish such result than be obstinately orthodox in methods. The motto of a true healer is "Not code or creed, but cure."

TO THE PUBLIC It is but just to you and myself that I make some mention of my fitness for the work I would undertake. I come of a medical family. I have attended and hold credentials from leading colleges of various schools or systems of medicine. For years I have successfully conducted a large practice. I have held high office in state and national medical societies and received honorary professional recognition abroad. I have had considerable hospital experience, was an intimate associate of distinguished experts and familiar with their methods; am something of a medical author and have been professor in reputable medical colleges. These statements can be easily verified. If they commend me to your confidence it will give me pleasure to professionally advise and assist healthward all who need and desire my services. Office practice preferred, but if properly arranged for, visits will be made any distance. Respectfully, Funny Toothache Cures.

Before the days of dentists, and when people generally believed in the value of charms, there were ever so many mysterious ways of preventing toothache.
One of these was to dress the right side of the body first—right stocking, right shoe, right sleeve, right glove. A favorite plan in Scotland was to draw a tooth, salt it well and burn it in full view on glowing coals. In Cornwall many save their teeth by biting the first young ferns that appear.
The custom of catching a common ground mole, cutting off the paws while the little creature still lives, and wearing them, is traced to Staffordshire, England. Some people who are fond of exercise believe that walking 12 miles —no more, no less—to get a splinter of the toothache tree that grows particularly well in Canada and Virginia will drive away the worst ache and pain that ever tortured a poor tooth.
The belief that toothache is caused by a worm at the roots is prevalent in many parts of the world; hence this cure: Reduce several different kinds of herbs—the greater variety the better—to a powder. Put a glowing cinder into this powder and inhale the incense.
Afterward breathe into a cup of water and the worm will be gone forever.

Extraordinary Drinks.
Of the many extraordinary drinks regularly consumed the blood of live horses may perhaps be considered the most so. Marco Polo and Carpi were the first to tell the world of the practice of the Tartars and Mongols opening the vein in their horses' necks, taking a drink and closing the wound again. As far as can be seen this has been the practice from time immemorial.
There is a wine habitually consumed in China which is made from the flesh of lambs reduced to paste with milk or bruised into pulp with rice and then fermented. It is exceptionally strong and nutritious and powerfully stimulating to the physical organism.
The Laplanders drink a great deal of smoked snow water, and one of the national drinks of the Tongquese is arrack flavored with chickens' blood. The list would scarcely be complete without mention of absinthe, which may be called the national spirituous drink of France. It is a horrible compound of alcohol, anise, coriander, fennel, wormwood, indigo and sulphate of copper. It is strong, nasty and a moral and physical poison.

Snow Trade in Sicily.
The principal export from Catania is snow, in which a most lucrative trade is carried on in Malta and parts of southern Italy. It is collected during the winter in hollows in the mountains and covered with ashes to prevent its thawing. It is brought down in panniers on mules to the coast at night.
The revenue derived from this source is immense and renders the Prince of Paterno one of the richest men in Sicily.
Snow is the universal luxury from the highest to the lowest rank and is sold at the rate of 4 cents for 30 ounces.
The poorest cobbler there would rather deprive himself of his dinner than of his glass of "acqua gelata."
It is extensively used in hospitals and a scarcity of it would be considered almost as great a misfortune as a famine and would occasion popular tumult.
To guard against such accidents the government at Naples has made the providing of it a monopoly, the contractors being required to give security to the amount of 60,000 ducats, which sum is forfeited if it can be proved that for one hour the supply has not been equal to the demand.

The Savage and the Birdcage.
A gentleman who went out with Stanley to Africa took with him a number of birdcages, in which he hoped to bring back some specimens of the rarer birds of the interior. Owing to the death of his carriers he was obliged to throw away the birdcages with a number of other articles. These were seized by the natives in great glee, though they did not know what to do with them, but they eventually decided that the small circular cages were a kind of headgear, and knocking off the bottom, the chiefs strutted about in them with evident pride. One chief, thinking himself more wise than the others and having seen the white men eat at table out of dishes, thought they were receptacles for food and took his meals from one, ceremoniously opening and shutting the door between each mouthful.

Jack Tar at a Christening.
A sailor went up to the font to have his baby baptized. Sailors as a class claim little stock in babies, and, naturally enough, this one presented the infant feet foremost.
"The other way," said the minister, and, accordingly, Jack turned the infant upside down.
"Excuse me," said the clergyman,
"I mean the other way." So back came the embryo foretopman to the first position, to the discouragement of everybody.
"Wind it, Jack," said the nautical assistant, and with an "Aye, aye, sir," Jack promptly turned the baby end for end, and it was duly christened head first.—"On a Man-of-war."

A Literary Slip.
One of the most literary of the London evening papers makes the following startling announcement: "A complete set of hydrants and fire appliances will be arranged, and the stage is to be fitted with a double asbestos and steel fireproof curtain, controllable by one man. The latter is designed to be one of the largest in London—namely, about 80 feet wide and 50 feet deep."—Glasgow Times.
First Caricature.
Probably the first caricature in manuscript is to be found in the Egyptian papyrus in the British museum, where the lion and unicorn are represented playing a game of draughts.

"CON" IS BACK.

St. Joseph's Irish Hero Has Returned from the Army.

"Con" O'Connor, the well known St. Joseph soldier, is back from the front, or as far toward the front as he could get.

When war was first mentioned several months ago, Con had an aching desire to become what the world lauds as a hero. He cared little in what line and first turned his attention to the navy and went to Chicago to enlist. "I got along with the examination all right until they caught sight of my bum lamp," said he pointing to his still eye. "Then I had a longing to get into the army, so I went to Gov. Tanner and had him put me in the 1st Illinois cavalry."

O'Connor was given a good job paying $100 a month after he arrived at Chickamauga and all of the time he was not in the guard house he spent his time looking after leaks in the water works system. His position was that of master plumber of the camp.

His description of the life at Camp Thomas is not over complimentary to those in charge. But whatever hardships he was obliged to contend with, he claims to have become a hero just the same. "I know I am a hero," he says, "for when I went away the police were looking for me and now only photographers and newspaper men want to see me."

O'Connor has been transferred to the regular army and will leave at the expiration of his furlough for Fort Sheridan.

Chaplain Davis Home.

Chaplain Hardin W. Davis of the 5th Illinois regiment has returned to his home in St. Joseph after an absence of several months.

It is a matter of deep regret to Mr. Davis that his regiment was not ordered to the scene of conflict. He did good work in the army however, and became one of the most popular men in the regiment.

He is looking as healthy and rosy as it is possible for a man to look after the long dreary months of waiting at Camp Thomas.

Chaplain Davis will remain in St. Joseph until the expiration of his 30-days furlough when he will return to the regiment probably to be mustered out.

PHISCATOR HAS RETURNED.

Comes Back With Another Lump of Klondike Gold.

As mentioned in the News some time ago, Frank Phiscator, the Baroda gold king, arrived in the United States with a second installment of $120,000 in gold from the Klondike.

He is back in St. Joseph again looking hale and hearty for the experiences he has passed through since leaving here last April.

Mr. Phiscator says that he has made his last trip to the Klondike, at least for some years. He expects to dispose of all his interests there as soon as possible.

LIKE A FUNERAL.

County Buildings Deserted for Republican Convention.

There is a sepulchral stillness about the county buildings today. Circuit court adjourned last night until next Monday and the judge and all of the court officers have gone home. All of the county officers excepting Probate Judge Van Kiper have gone to Berrien Springs to attend the county republican convention.

For once the county officers went to a convention without their fighting clothes on. They were sure of a harmonious gathering and expect to have no dissension or differences arise.

Things will begin to hum about the court house again next Monday when work on the circuit court calendar will again be taken up.

ST. JOSEPH.

Mrs. John Shaffer, one of St. Joseph's pioneers, is dying of dropsy. There is no hope of her recovery.

John Evans, who has been in Chicago all summer, is in town visiting his mother for a few days.

John Herring has purchased the Sauerbier residence property on State street. Mrs. Sauerbier will move her millinery business to Chicago.

Drake & Wallace are making preparations to rebuild the burned steamer Tourist for next season or if that seems impractical to build another boat in her place. The up-river excursion business this year was so rushing that the firm has decided to run two boats next summer.

Frank Herring, the popular Big Four engineer, has purchased a half interest in A. L. Church's notion store.

Al. Tilson, the popular St. Joseph actor, is now filling an engagement at the new Dearborn theatre in Chicago. He is very popular with the Chicago audiences.

MAYOR ALL RIGHT

Didn't Fully Explain His "Elephant" Idea Yesterday.

Mayor Brant explains that his letter wherein he referred to the water works as an elephant was misunderstood. He did not mean to insinuate that the city carried out a poor idea in owning the water plant but that the water plant was an elephant because it was constructed on a scale to supply a village instead of a city. He predicts that in a few years the mains must be torn up and replaced by larger ones.

This is the danger he wishes to avoid in the matter of an electric light plant. If the city builds one build it large enough to supply the demand of street and commercial light and power. This is the mayor's platform and is a pretty good one to stand upon.

Encouraging a Youth.

Congressman McClellan of New York, who is remarkably youthful in his appearance, is said by the Washington Times to be in the habit of telling the following story against himself: About two weeks after my first appearance in the house I left my hotel late. I had not had time to read the papers, and picking up a dozen or more, I placed them under my arm and boarded a car. I left it at the entrance to the capitol grounds, and was hastening toward the building, when an elderly man, who it was evident hailed from the rural districts, accosted me. "Air you a goin' to the capitol," he asked. "Yes," I replied. "So'm I," he said. "That is a privilege every man in this country may enjoy," I answered. "Yes, I guess that's what we fit fer," said my new acquaintance, and then he added, "What air you in such a hurry for?" "I want to get rid of these papers," I answered in a reckless way, pointing to the bundle beneath my arm. "Hum, young man!" said the man, as gravely as an undertaker, "why don't you remember you're a man now, and stop sellin' newspapers, behave yourself and be elected to congress, and become a great man, like Dan'l Webster?"

Italian Marriage Brokers.

In Genoa there are regular marriage brokers who have lists of marriageable girls of the different classes with notes of their personal attractions, fortunes and circumstances. These brokers go about endeavoring to arrange connections in the same off hand way that they would a merchandise transaction. Marriages there are more often a simple matter of business calculation, generally settled by the relatives, who often draw up the contract before the parties have seen each other. It is only when everything has been arranged and a few days previous to the marriage ceremony that the future husband is introduced to his intended wife. Should he find fault with her manners and appearance he may annul the contract on condition of defraying the brokerage and any other expenses incurred.

The Dough Head Discovered.

That truth is stranger than fiction is illustrated by the following true story, relates the Lapeer Press: About 40 years ago a boy was kicked by a horse. The physician attending the case found his skull was broken, and a good share of his brains had leaked out. Thinking to do the best he could and knowing it would not do to leave the place vacant, the doctor took buckwheat flour, and, making a thick batter, trophined the skull and filled the cavity. That boy lived and grew to be a man, weighs 250 pounds and is smart as most men. Living not far from Oakwood, he does business in Lapeer quite often and is all right, only once in awhile that buckwheat batter will rise, and then he is daft for a time. Dr. William Rossman, who died in this city, did the surgical job.

Educating Her Girls.

Standards of conduct differed from those now in general acceptance. For instance, walking one day to Ipswich we met a laborer's wife and her two daughters, girls of 12 and 14.

"So, Mrs. P.," said my eldest sister, "you have been shopping."
"No, miss," replied the good woman, with an unmistakable air of self approval, "but I am anxious to do my girls all the good I can, so I have just taken them to see a man hanged."
"Reminiscences of Bentham Edwards."

Wonderful Memories.

Seneca, the tutor of Nero, could repeat 2,000 words exactly as he heard them. Pope could turn at once to any passage which had struck him when reading, and Leyden, the Scottish poet, who died in the early part of the century, was also remarkable for his memory. Leyden is credited with having been able to repeat an act of parliament or a long legal document after having heard it once.
